IML technology

IML (In-Mold Labeling) is a technology for melting a label into the walls of a container at the stage of its molding in an injection mold.

Benefits:

- Elegant attractive look
- Resistant to moisture, grease and temperature
- Resistance to abrasion, separation from the container
- Save time: packaging and labeling at the same time
- 100% protection of products from counterfeiting

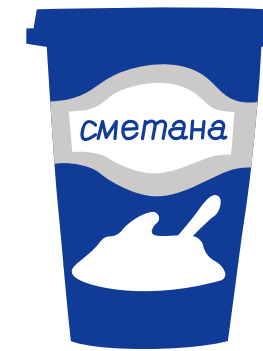

IML labeling is the most advanced method for decorating rigid plastic packaging.
